which stock is held by the Northern Pacific Railroad Co., which also owns a majority of the Pacific Coast Steamship stock. Wells, Fargo claim that, owing to this combination of interests, the steamship company have refused to carry their express matter, giving the entire privilege to the Northern Pacific Express. Judge Sawyer granted the preliminary writ of injunction, pending the litigation. Wells, Fargo & Co. have already been enjoined in Washington Territory, Idaho and Montana. It is believed the result of this fight will be similar to that of the Railroad Conference: to confine each express company to its own particular territory.

It is stated John A. Gault has definitely accepted the railroad pool commissionership, with headquarters in this city. He is expected here at the end of this month.

this city. He is expected here at the end of this month.

Concerning the failure of Coleman Bros., clothiers, in San Francisco and New York, a gentleman familiar with their affairs says the failure was not unexpected. At one time they were rated among the half-million dollar firms, but the retirement of Sol. Coleman, who lives in Europe, and who took a quarter of a million out of the business, together with heavy mining losses of one of the members of the firm, are the causes of their going under. The assignees have commenced taking stock, but have been delayed by the Jewish holidays. It is believed the liabilities will not exceed two hundred thousand dollars.

THE TWIN RELICS.

Alarming Spread of Mormonism—

The destruction is complete.

The fire was first discovered at two o'clock this morning in the boiler-room attached to the machinery hall at the south end of the building, and before the watchman could give an alarm the flames had spread to Floral Hall, Machinery Hall and the main building, and in less than ten minutes the buildings were on fire from end to end, and when the fire department arrived on the firemen turned their attention to saving the adjacent property, many residences on the South Avenue being in flames. By hard work, however, they succeeded in saving all these, with no more dam age done, han the burning of fences and cornices. Repeated alarms soon aroused almost the entire population of the two cities, and it is estimated that not less than 75,000 to 100,000 people witnessed

NEW YORK, Oct. 2 .- The Herald's Washington special says: Executive orders consolidating the internal revenue districts were completed yesterday by merging the Fourth California district and the State of Nevada into one district. The order in regard to New Jersey and Wisconsin was suspended by the President, and unless he should change his mind, the reduction of the revenue districts is ended.

A Bloodhound that Lived on Cats. Philadelphia Times.] Pat Dugan boards, lodges, bathes and doctors dogs for $2 per week each and sometimes has as many as thirty on his hands at one time. Mr. Dugan has been in the business fifteen years Many strange things have happened in his business. The strangest was in "'Do you board dogs?' sed he. 'I do,' sed I. 'Well,' sed he, 'will you take a Siberian bloodhound for five months?' 'I will,' sed I. 'Well,' sed he, looking at me sharp, 'this dog must have a cat every day.' I agreed to do it for $5 a week. 'All right,' to do it for $5 a week. All right, sed he. 'I'm a Roosian legations and am going West till fall.' He counted out the board money for three months, left me his address and slid out. The left me his address and slid out. The next day the dog was brung around by a servaut and I put him in a room in the back shed and the circus begun.

At first it was a regular picnic. I bought cats from boys at 10 cents apiece and coined money. That dog would bolt 'em, fur and all. After three weeks cats begun to go up and I soon had to pay 25, then 50 cents apiece. I advertised that I would pay 25 cents for good fat cats. That worked fine for a couple of days, and then the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals comes down on me Yuma Sentinel.]

Mr. Isaac Lyons returned from Los Angeles on Thursday evening. Mr. Lyand I had to snake what cats I could buy over the back yard fence. The boys dropped on my fix and cats riz a dollar apiece quick as wink. That was dollar apiece quick as wink. That was more'n I could stand, so I just jumped the contract, sent the dog to the Roo-sian Minister's and skipped the town.
